Product Description

Water Ripple Corrugated Wall Panel Lobby Facade Interior Decorative Wall Panel

Bamboo charcoal environmentally friendly water ripple wall panels, combined with the ecological awareness of bamboo charcoal, elevate the interior space to a new level of beauty and happiness. Indulge in the fascinating beauty of the water ripples on the water ripple board. The elegant pattern creates a sense of tranquility, bringing a touch of natural tranquility to your living space. At the heart of our water corrugated panels is the essence of sustainable development - bamboo charcoal wood veneer. This veneer is made from environmentally friendly bamboo and infused with activated bamboo charcoal, which not only exudes a luxurious atmosphere, but also naturally purifies the air, creating a healthier and fresher living environment. The three-dimensional design of our panels adds depth and texture, bringing your walls to life with a captivating sense of movement. As light dances on the ripples, your space is transformed into a visual treat that leaves a lasting impression. In the test of domestic testing organizations, the environmental protection grade of the board reaches E0 grade, and the flame retardant grade reaches B grade.
