Product Description

Hotel decoration waterproof wood grain bamboo charcoal wood veneer

Wood Grain Bamboo Charcoal Wood Veneer Utilizes the natural beauty of wood grain and the added advantages of waterproof, fireproof, moisture-proof and eco-friendly bamboo charcoal to enhance the atmosphere of the hotel space. The wood veneer features a refined wood grain design that adds a touch of warmth and sophistication to hotel interiors. The detailed wood grain texture creates a charming visual effect and enhances the beauty of the space. The wood veneer is designed for practicality and resists water and moisture. It is effectively waterproof, ensuring longevity and preventing moisture-related problems. This makes it ideal for hospitality spaces where durability and ease of maintenance are important. Wood finishes are fire and heat resistant. Its inherent fire performance ensures hospitality spaces are protected for peace of mind. The veneer is made of eco-friendly bamboo charcoal, which is both elegant and sustainable. The use of environmentally friendly materials is in line with modernity and adds a green touch to the hotel's interior design.
